Travel resource for the music and entertainment industry who are we?

A Division of Eton Travel Group, DETONATE was established in 1996 to provide bands, record labels, PR companies, artist management companies and DJ's with a dedicated travel management service.

Now working on behalf of some of the most influential and recognised individuals in these industries, DETONATE has gone from strength to strength.

your complete travel solution and friendly staff. We have extensive knowledge of the music and entertainment industries and their related events. With the added benefit of a global alliance with American Express, DETONATE is able to promote reduced airfares and hotel rates, whilst giving the personal service only an independent can offer.

Uniquely, we offer the facility to accept split payment from different sources for one or more transactions.

In addition, DETONATE clients can enjoy the advantage of using our out of hours service and can rest in the knowledge that we are a fully bonded IATA, ABTA and ATOL agent.

DETONATE provides you with a dedicated team of highly motivated, experienced understanding you

Understanding you and your needs is key to our success. We have worked hard to create a tailor-made service that provides flexibility and that will exceed your individual expectation.

DETONATE is proud of its reputation and rightly so. Wherever your business takes you, depend on us to get you there.
